BIBLIOTHECA BODLEIANA

To the READER.

THis ſecond Eſſay of the Sale of Books by Auction at Richard's Coffee-Houſe, is more eſpecially deſigned to Oblige the Gentlemen of that part of the Town: And ſince from the many Experiments in that kind that have of late been made, the Gentlemen are ſufficiently ſenſible of the great Advantages that have accrued to them, I think it needleſs to uſe any other Arguments by way of Perſuaſion. The Books are the beſt and choiceſt in their kind, accompanied with the Qualifications of good Binding and Ornamental Lettering, accommodated to the preſent Mode of Gentlemens Libraries; which conſidered, I doubt not but they will be very acceptable to the Lovers of Learning and Knowledge.

E. M.

This Sale will begin on Monday the Ninth day of this Inſtant May 1687. at Richard's Coffee-Houſe near the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleetſtreet, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning till Twelve, and from Three to Seven in the Evening, till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know,) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are ſold; where, upon payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.

IV. The Books to be ſeen for Two days before the Auction begins.
